TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 15, 1866.

A letter is published from the correspondent of the London Times, giving an account of an interview he had lately with the President .-Mr. Johnson expressed his views on the politicel situation fully and at length, reiterating in strong and emphatic language, the declarations he has made for months past, in reference to his course; stating that he is more than ever confirmed in his belief of the correctness of the stand he has taken, and of the wrong and injustice of the Radicals, &c. According to this letter the President stated that he would not be a candidate for the Presidency, and that his only desire is to complete the work of peace and restoration. The London Times says the words of the President do him the greatest

The Radical candidate for Governor of Penncylvania, is Gen. T. W. Geary. We know nothing of him, and judging from a statement made-with references to the most respectable citizens in confirmation of the statement-by he Warrenton Fauquier county True Index, as to Gen. Geary's operations during the war, in that section of the country, we should suppose that those who nominated him did not know him. That is the charitabe construction. If the half that is told is correct, he certainly ought to be anything but a candidate for Gov ernor of a State. The Index advises his friends to send on a deputation to Virginia, where they can procure his photograph, "to the

Mr. A. M. Keiley, of the Petersburg Index, ars published in a small and very readable volume his experience of a protracted confinement at Point Lookout and at Elmira. There is so much said about Andersonville and Salisbury, that it is well to know how these things were managed by some whose indignation has been se much aroused against "Capt. Wirz" and "Major Gee." The accounts that the Confedeover, of their treatment at some of the Federe! prisons, will long be remembered.

The Raleigh Standard comes to us in mourning for the death of Hon. George E. Badger, which occured at his residence, in Raleigh, on Friday last. "Mr. Badger," says the Standard, "had been a member of the Legislature from the town of Newberne, a Judge of the Superfor Jourt, Secretary of the Navy, Senator in the Congress of the United States, and a member of the State Convention of North Carolina in 1861. In all these positions he acquitted hirself with marked ability."

Mr. J. M. Botts has published a letter to the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, dated Astor House, New York, May 12, in which he urges several objections to the "Report of the Reconstruction Committee"-emong which are, that "it makes no provision for the relief of the Union white men of the South"—that the disfranchisement is too limited and does not include Northern "sympathizers,"-that the bill proposed cannot receive the President's sanction, nor the constitutional amendment be adopted by the requisite number of States-and that the Southern States will not accept the conditions prescribed. In lieu, therefore, of the proposed plan, Mr. Botts recommends that "it shall be declared by law that no person hereafter shall be capable of holding any office, legislative, executive or judicial, in the Federal or State Covernments, for ten years from the passage of the act, who was over the age of twenty five at the breaking out of the rebellion, without taling the following oath in addition to that now required of all such officers by the Constitution of the United States:"

"I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I have no since the 20th day of December, 1860 (the date of the ordinance of Secession of South Caroline.) voluntarily taken up arms against the United States, nor have I advised or encouraged others to do so; that I have not sought or held office under the Confederate States Government, or of that of any State in rebellion with a view ir gay manner to aid the rebellion; that I have not said, written or done anything designed, or of a nature calculated to alienate the affections or allegiance from the government of the United States; nor have I otherwise given aid and comfort to the rebellion.

This enactment to be accompanied with an absolute remission in all cases of the forfeiture of life, liberty and property, for the crimes sommitted by, and under the authority of those in rebellion; and let it also be declared, that if it shall be ascertained that any person has s-forn falsely to obtain or hold any office hereby prohibited, such office shall be absolutely vacated, and the party held liable to a prosecution | years; but we understand that the company or perjury.

es follows:
"If this plan should be adopted, every loyal to be enhanted to the test prescribed sitizen would be subjected to the test prescribed before he could hold legislative, executive or judicial office, whiist those of thirty and under, the had borne arms against the country would be relieved of such obligation. It would be manifestly proper therefore that an oath should be provided for them which would have only a prospective operation, and I suggest the fol-

J. L. B., do sclemnly swear, that I recogpize the Constitution of the United States, and all laws made in pursuance thereof, as the suoreme law of the land; and that I am bound thereby, any State law, constitution or ordinance or convention to the contrary notwithstanding; and that I regard all laws of the Inited States as binding on the citizens thereof, until repealed or declared unconstitutional by the Surreme Court of the United States.— That I regard the first obligation of allegiance of the citizen as due to the United States, and acte to any compotent part thereof; and I will herearter observe and obey the laws, and prompon to do so.'

NEWS OF THE DAY.

'To show the very age and body of the Times.'

The steamship Helvetia which left Liverpool for New York, on the 2d inst., put back to the former port after reaching Queenstown, Ireland, in consequence of cholera breaking out among the German emigrants on board. The National Steamship Company have decided not to permit German emigrants to take passage for America on board the vessels belonging to that line. The British Government has ordered an examination to be made of all Ger-Liverpool, as it is now asserted that the cholegers by the Helvetia whilst at Liverpool.

By the arrival of the steamship Moravian, we have advices from Europe to the 4th inst. The German question remained unchanged, and the danger of war appeared to be less imminent between Austria and Italy as the latter Power has telegraphed the French Government that an engagement had been entered into not to attack Austria. PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.-The only thing of general interest which transpired in rate prisoners brought home, after the war was | the Senate yesterday was a substitute offered by Mr. Stewart for his original proposition of general ampesty in States which concede colored suffrage. "His substitute provides for impartial suffrage, to which the States lately in rebellion are required to give their assent as a condition to their return to the Union. It excludes from office the rebel President, Vice President, members of the 36th Congress, heads of departments who went into rebellion, and also those who were cruel to Union prisoners. On complying with these terms the States mentioned are to be admitted and universal amnesty declared."

Mr. Chanler, of New York, offered a resolution | held at Falls Church, on Saturday next, the declaring that President Johnson, in using the 19th inst., at 11 o'clock, A. He expressed extreme pleasure when the news of his indictment reached him, confident that speedy action in his case will soon follow.

The indictment found by the Grand Jury in Norfolk, against Mr. Davis has been published. It is in the usual form, charging him with treason and rebellion, and with conspiring with others, by force of arms, to subvert the government to levy war against the U. S. &c. FALLS CHURCH, May 14, 1866. To the Gazette's Reporter: Our quiet little radical village, was "favored," on Saturday last, by a meeting of the Territorialists, or Revolutionists, or whatsoever you please to call the little clique-who are trying to raise a dust, to throw into somebody's eyes- a notice of which gathering was posted at the front door of the post office of this village. Now the meeting was called for two of the clock, P. M., but as the delegation from your city (composed of John Hawxhurst, who holds a Federal office, man emigrants before allowing them to land at | and Geo. Tucker) did not arrive until after the hour appointed for the assembling of the faithra made its first appearance among the passen- ful, the citizens had to wait until about 3 o'clock, when the meeting, composed of some sixteen persons, was called to order, and Mr. George Thompson, a reliable Union man, nominated Col. D. F. Dulany for presiding officer. Our Senator, however, much to the chagrin of the meeting, declined the proffered honor, and politely requested to be informed for what purpose the meeting had been called, and what were its objects; and then, very much to the

> The nerves of the affrighted being somewhat calmed, Mr. Talmadge Thorn was elected to preside, but no sooner had he assumed the duties of his responsible position, than Col. Dulany, apparently not to be thwarted in his purpose of discomfiting the body, again called for information in regard to the objects and purposes of the august assemblage. Talmadge, unluckily, was not posted, and said that "all he knew about the treat" was, that they were to elect delegates to attend the Convention in Alexandria. This being rather unsatisfactory, Mr. Hawxhurst undertook to explain, but got fuddled, and finally said that "all he knew 'bout it" was, that he had seen a notice of the meet-announcing that the meeting was not for polit-ing, but, really, he did not know its objects. The friends of the "call" being either willfully or maliciously ignorant of what they were after, and either unable or unwilling to explain the objects of the meeting, Col. Dulany, by way of enlightening the uninitiated, stated that he had been informed (oh! horrors! more traitors in the camp-that fellow had better look sharp -REP.) that it was the desire of the individuals who called the meeting, to endeavor to throw a Sovereign State (admitted to be so by longress, in receiving her vote on the constitutional amendment) into a Territory. This Territorializing business the Colonel was decidedly "agin," and denounced it as an outrage and ninety-nine hundreths of the people of the State are of his opinion.

The Colonel having concluded his remarks, Mr. Tucker produced a carefully prepared series of resolutions, which he read, endorsing Congress and, by implication, the President, but failing to prove anything, unless we admit that extremes meet. The negro came in, in the shape of universal suffrage.

Upon the conclusion of the reading of this carefully prepared and well digested compound, Senator Dulany withdrew, but not before he stated his abiding confidence in the Executive, There was an exciting scene in the House. and gave notice that a public meeting will be friends of the President and the opponents of
